AREUEA, Ireland 2022

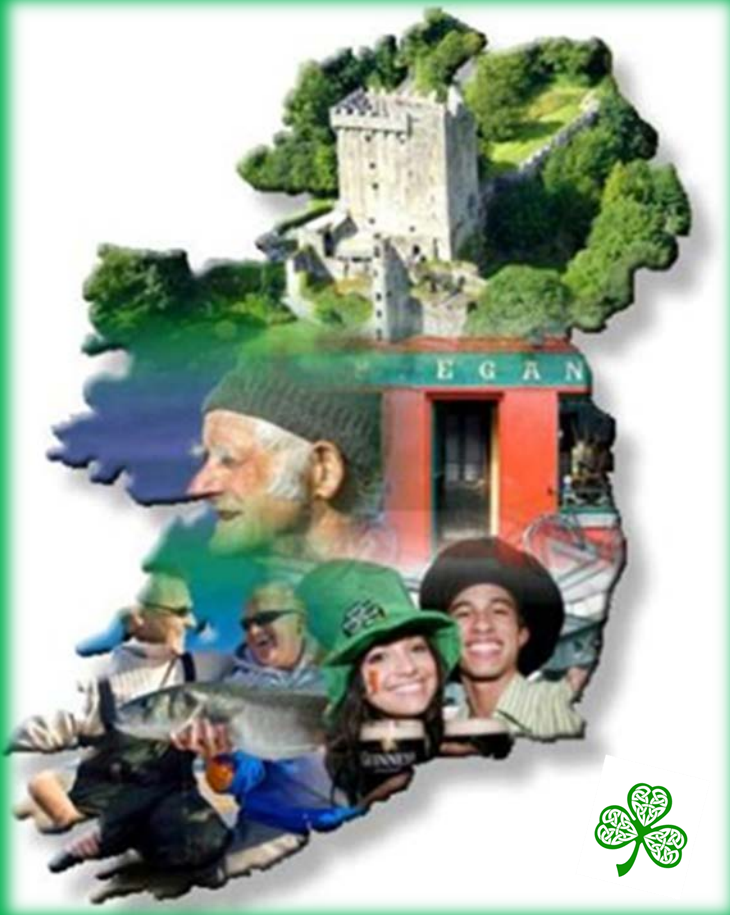

2022 Dublin International Conference

Held for the first time in 1992, AREUEA's annual International Conference over the years has become the leading conference to address global developments in international topics that affect real estate and urban economics.

Following the global pandemic, the conference in Dublin will provide a forum for academics, research focused practitioners and policy makers to update and present research findings in the areas of urban economics, real estate markets, housing economics and finance, development and investment, real estate finance, and other related areas.

Why Dublin?

Dublin brings to mind literary giants, Georgian architecture and Guinness galore.

Over 1,000
years of history

Ancient tombs and monuments, fortified barracks and castles, museums and gardens of remembrance, around every corner of the city is a story, hidden and untold. From rebellion to rising, from parliaments to peaceful times, relive our history through discovery trails and tours.

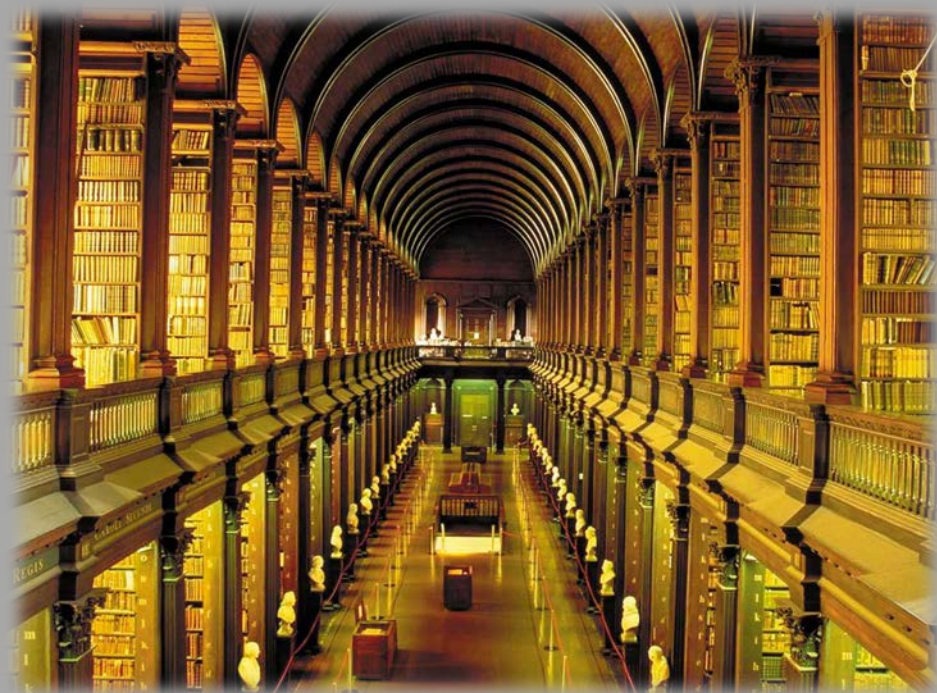

Venue: Trinity College Dublin

Founded in 1592, Trinity College Dublin is Ireland's highest ranking university.

Spread across 42 acres in Dublin city centre, Trinity 17,000-strong students body comes from all 32 counties and more than 120 countries, making it a cosmopolitan campus with a focus on diversity, intellectual enquiry, academic excellence and research-led teaching.

Trinity itself is home to some of Ireland's greatest cultural treasures: the Book of Kells, the Old Library and the Science Gallery.
