

Data Protection Policy

1. General Regulations

The What's Next in Autism Genomics? Conference 2019 Organising Committee reserves the right to amend the existing data protection regulations in strict accordance with prevailing legal norms at any time.

1.1. Personal Data

Your voluntarily transmitted personal details (through submission in our online form) will be collected, saved and processed in accordance with the most recent legislation on data protection.

A registration to What's Next in Autism Genomics? Conference 2019 is not possible without collecting, saving and processing your personal data. This is solely for the purpose of organising and realising the event. Your data will only be passed on to third parties, who are directly involved in running the event and when the organisational process makes it necessary.

1.2. Photos/Films

By registering to attend What's Next in Autism Genomics? Conference 2019, you grant permission to the What's Next in Autism Genomics? Conference 2019 Organising Committee to use photos/films taken from you or your company presence by our official photographer and videographer on site during the meeting for marketing purposes (event reporting, promotion of follow-up events and self-marketing) for an indefinite period of time. If you do not want to have any photos/films taken of you published, you may contact us at any time and autism (AT) tcd.ie

2. Information Obligation

We would be pleased to provide you with the following information describing the type, purpose and scope of the processing of your personal data.

2.1. Controller And Processor

Controller: Trinity College Dublin

Processors: The Organising Committee

2.2. Purposes of Processing

The data are processed for participant management for the event, and will involve name, email address, organisation, dietary information

2.3. Legal Basis for the data processing purposes

Binding completion of the registration for the participation of the selected event

2.4. Data Storage Period

All data are stored for 1 year to permit post-event support and service only (i.e. belated participation confirmations).

Upon request of the person concerned, their data will be deleted within 48 hours of receipt of request.